

BEWARE OF TOUTS

Recruitment process is open, fair and transparent. Selection is purely on merit and capability of the candidate. Do not fall prey to the touts .They can not help you in any way.

CERTAIN WAYS THE TOUTS FOOL THE CANDIDATES, WE COME TO KNOW THEM THROUGH THE CANDIDATES WHO WERE THEIR VICTIMS.

1. Choosing of a Likely Victim. Before a tout takes money from a candidate, he checks the candidate thoroughly. Normally the boy is physically fit with no med problems and would in all probability be good in studies. Such a candidate will pass on his own steam. In such a case, the tout takes the credit. The recruiting organization gets bad name. If the candidate gets rejected, the tout returns the money or at least a major part of it. The boy is also happy, because if the tout could not get the work done, he has returned the money. 'Thora paisa nahi wapas kiya. . . . who neechey walon ko khilane pilane main lag gaya. Sahab ne kaha hai ki agli rally main dekh lenge. Is baar bahut sakhti thi'. Now how was that!

2. People in the Rtg Org are well known to me. In the middle of a rect rally, a totally unknown indl will come up to you and make a deliberate effort to shake hands with you claiming to be an ex-servicemen. Mind you, he may have onlookers watching this act of his. He capitalizes only on this shake hand.

3. Wear this coloured Banian /Shorts, I've told the people concerned. They won't ask you anything but will know that you are my man.

4. When you go for the interview of the Director Recruiting, say 'Namaste' or touch his feet. He will understand.

5. You just pass the run. I will get the rest of it done.

And many more we learn in each rally. After all, learning is an unending process. . .

Caution. Be extremely careful of the people you know very well. Be it an officer, JCO or may be your own driver or helper. They could be using your name.
